The DAWN OF TRIUMPHANT LIVING

CEFMORSI GLOBAL WORKSPACE TEAM

Welcome to the Dawn of Triumphant Living

There is a moment just before sunrise when darkness has not fully lifted, yet light has already begun to break through. That moment is called dawn - a quiet but decisive shift from night to day. It is neither loud nor forceful, yet it is unstoppable. Darkness does not argue with dawn; it simply gives way.

“Now thanks be unto God, which always causeth us to triumph in Christ...” - 2 Corinthians 2:14.

Not sometimes. Not eventually. But always.

The question then arises: If triumph is guaranteed in Christ, why do so many believers struggle to live in it?

The answer is not a lack of effort. It is often a lack of revelation. Triumphant living is not the result of spiritual endurance competitions, religious obligations, or self-generated strength. It is not achieved by fighting harder or doing more. Rather, it is received - through grace. Grace is the divine provision that makes victory practical, sustainable, and personal. It is the unseen engine that powers a believer's daily walk, anchoring them not in self, but in Christ's finished work.

Here, triumph is not presented as a distant destination you must chase, but as a position you already occupy. In Christ, you are not fighting for victory - you are living from victory. His triumph becomes your testimony, His righteousness your identity, and His grace your daily strength.

As you journey through these pages, you will encounter truth designed not merely to inform you, but to transform your perspective. You will be reminded that grace does not weaken discipline; it strengthens obedience. Grace does not excuse defeat; it empowers dominion. Grace does not produce complacency; it births confidence.

EDITORIAL
NOTE

EDITORIAL NOTE

This is your dawn moment.

A call to rise above guilt-driven Christianity.

A call to embrace identity over activity.

A call to live boldly, joyfully, and assuredly from the victory Christ has already secured.

May the light of this dawn flood every area of your life - your faith, your purpose, your relationships, and your walk with God. And as you step forward, may you no longer ask whether triumph is possible, but rather how boldly you will walk in what is already yours.

Welcome to the dawn.

Welcome to triumphant living in grace.

CONGRATULATIONS & WELCOME TO YEAR 2026:

HAPPY AND BLESSED YEAR OF TRIUMPHANT LIVING!

“This is the day the Lord has made; we will rejoice and be glad in it.” - Psalm 118:24 (NKJV).

The blessed year 2026, divinely titled “Triumphant Living,” has arrived - not by chance, but by God’s sovereign purpose. This year stands as a prophetic invitation to every believer to enact and authenticate God’s triumph in Christ Jesus, regardless of circumstances, opinions, or opposition.

This mandate is not rooted in human optimism or religious sentiment. It is scripturally assured, grounded in the eternal Word of God revealed in Jesus Christ - the Word made flesh (John 1:1–5, 14). In Him, our redemption, authority, and victory are secured.

As Scripture declares:

“We have a more sure word of prophecy, to which you do well to pay attention...” - 2 Peter 1:19–21.

The year 2026 is therefore not merely a calendar progression - it is a spiritual summons to live out what Christ has already accomplished.

THE ESSENCE OF TRIUMPHANT LIVING

Triumphant Living is not self-generated. It flows entirely from God’s redemptive work in Christ - what He has done for us, done in us, is doing through us, and continues to do with us.

Through Christ:

We are redeemed

We are empowered

We are positioned

We are sent

“Now thanks be to God who always leads us in triumph in Christ.” - 2 Corinthians 2:14.

Triumph, therefore, is not merely winning battles - it is manifesting Christlikeness in every sphere of life.

WHAT TRIUMPHANT LIVING MEANS FOR THE BELIEVER

1. Identity Restored

Triumphant Living authenticates your rightful place as an Ambassador for Christ, called to reign in life under God's authority (2 Corinthians 5:17–20; Genesis 1:26–28).

2. Victory Rooted in Redemption

Our triumph is anchored in Christ's finished work—not human effort. God credited Christ's victory to our account (Romans 5:17; Colossians 2:13–15).

3. Christlikeness Revealed

Triumph is revealed not in religious display, but in the visible nature of Christ expressed through love, authority, and truth (2 Corinthians 5:21; Romans 8:29).

4. Strength in Every Circumstance

Triumphant Living empowers believers to overcome adversity and advance God's purpose - no matter the situation (Romans 8:28–39; Philippians 4:13).

5. Spiritual Authority Exercised

This life equips believers to walk in dominion, influence, and control—free from fear and bondage (Genesis 1:26–28; Luke 10:19).

6. More Than Victory

Triumph goes beyond winning - it reflects the seal of the Holy Spirit, a victory no counterfeit power can replicate (Ephesians 1:13–14; Romans 5:5).

TRIUMPH IS A CHOICE

Triumphant Living is not automatic - it is intentional.

It requires personal responsibility, scriptural discernment, and obedience to God's Word.

Believers are called not to live on untested prophecy, but on examined truth (Acts 17:10–12; 1 Corinthians 14:29).

A PERSONAL DECLARATION

I have chosen the path of Triumphant Living in Christlikeness - to experience the fullness of God's grace, wisdom, and speed in 2026.

And like Apostle Paul declared:

“We believe, and therefore we speak.” - 2 Corinthians 4:13

By what Christ has accomplished, we prevail. By the Word of God, the Sword of the Spirit, we overcome (Revelation 5:5; Hebrews 4:12).

A COMMISSION FOR 2026

“Now then, we are ambassadors for Christ...” - 2 Corinthians 5:20

I therefore welcome you into 2026 - the Year of Triumphant Living.

May God crown this year with goodness, abundance, and divine fulfillment for you and all you hold dear (Psalm 65:11–13).

Amen.

FURTHER SCRIPTURAL READING:

Psalms 65:11-13/NKJV, 2 Corinthians 2:14-17, 2 Corinthians 2:14-17/Amplified, Colossians 2:1-23, 18, Exodus 15:1-21, Philippians 1:21-22/Amplified, 1 Peter 2:4-5, 9-10/Amplified.

MAKING TRIUMPHANT LIVING POSSIBLE: LAY A RIGHTEOUS FOUNDATION - NO STRANGE GODS PERMITTED AND ALLOWED!

“...The Lord alone led him, and there was no strange god with him. And He made him ride on the high places of the earth...” - Deuteronomy 32:12–13.

The Call to Soar

Triumphant living is not accidental. It is intentional, deliberate, and anchored in divine alignment.

Scripture paints a vivid picture of God leading His people like an eagle - stirring the nest, lifting them, bearing them on His wings, and causing them to ride on the high places of the earth. Yet, one defining condition stands out clearly:

“There was no strange god with him.”

To live triumphantly - to soar in dominion, authority, and spiritual elevation - there must be a settled resolve: no strange god will be permitted in the journey.

Understanding “Strange Gods”

A strange god is not limited to carved images or visible idols.

A strange god is anything that replaces God’s authority, sufficiency, and leadership in your life.

This includes:

- Trusting systems above God
- Compromising righteousness for outcomes
- Substituting faith with fear-driven decisions
- Elevating ambition above obedience
- Triumphant living demands exclusive allegiance.

Righteousness: The Foundation of Triumph

Righteousness is not optional -it is foundational.

Without righteousness, there can be activity, effort, and motion, but there will be no lasting triumph. Scripture is unambiguous:

“Righteousness exalts a nation, but sin is a reproach to any people.” - Proverbs 14:34.

In Christ Jesus, righteousness is not earned - it is received. Yet it must be upheld, honoured, and walked out deliberately.

Belief Unlocks Possibility

God’s possibilities are activated through belief aligned with righteousness.

“If you can believe, all things are possible to him who believes.” - Mark 9:23.

Faith is not mere confession - it is conviction expressed through obedience. Believing God while harbouring strange gods creates internal contradiction. Triumph requires alignment. With God, impossibility dissolves - but only where trust is whole.

LAY A RIGHTEOUS FOUNDATION - NO STRANGE GODS PERMITTED AND ALLOWED!

The Danger of Compromise

In the face of pressure, delay, or desire, many are tempted to compromise - seeking results by ungodly means while still expecting God's approval.

Scripture is firm:

"Do not be deceived: God is not mocked." - Galatians 6:7

God does not endorse triumph that is built on compromise.
He does not certify victories acquired through unrighteous means.
He cannot be replaced, shared, or substituted.

Righteous Living Touches Every Sphere

A righteous foundation affects every dimension of life, including:

- Marital and family relationships
- Friendships and community influence
- Career, education, and skill development
- Leadership, governance, and administration
- Business, finance, and economic dealings
- Ministry, service, and kingdom representation

When righteousness is upheld, stability follows.

"In righteousness you shall be established... No weapon formed against you shall prosper." - Isaiah 54:14-17.

Soaring Without Rival Allegiances

To soar like the eagle:

- God must be your sole source
- His Word must be your compass
- His righteousness must be your foundation

No strange gods. No divided loyalties. No compromised convictions.

This is how triumphant living becomes a default, not a struggle.

Prayer

I pray that God's grace, wisdom, and divine speed rest upon you. May you be firmly established in righteousness, free from every strange god, and empowered to live triumphantly in Christ Jesus - now and always.

Amen.

FURTHER SCRIPTURAL READING:

"Now then, we are ambassadors for Christ..." - 2 Corinthians 5:20

I therefore welcome you into 2026 - the Year of Triumphant Living.

May God crown this year with goodness, abundance, and divine fulfillment for you and all you hold dear (Psalm 65:11-13).

Amen.

TRIUMPHANT LIVING - The How-To of Living and Thriving:

Calling Those Things That Be Not as Though They Were

“We having the same spirit of faith, according as it is written, I believed, and therefore have I spoken; we also believe, and therefore speak.” - 2 Corinthians 4:13.

A Distinctive Mark of the Redeemed

One unmistakable signature of the redeemed of the Lord is how they speak.

Scripture reveals that those redeemed by God - from every tribe, tongue, people, and nation - sang a new song. Their language changed. Their declarations shifted. They no longer echoed defeat or despair, but spoke from a seated position of victory, triumph, and dominion in Christ Jesus.

“...And hath raised us up together, and made us sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus.” - Ephesians 2:6.

Redemption does not merely change our destination - it repositions our voice. We begin to call ourselves what God has made us to be, and we speak from the fullness of our justified status in Christ.

“...And they sang a new song, saying... Thou hast redeemed us to God by thy blood... and hast made us unto our God kings and priests: and we shall reign on the earth.” - Revelation 5:9–10.

The Power of Gracious Words

When Jesus returned from fasting, prayer, and divine commissioning, Scripture records that gracious words proceeded from His mouth - words that astonished His listeners.

“...And all bare Him witness, and wondered at the gracious words which proceeded out of His mouth...” - Luke 4:22.

Jesus understood that spoken words carry authority, direction, and life. His declarations aligned with His assignment, and His words revealed His identity.

Likewise, Moses and Miriam led Israel in triumphant declarations immediately after deliverance at the Red Sea. Before Israel journeyed forward, they spoke victory into memory, atmosphere, and identity.

“I will sing unto the Lord, for He hath triumphed gloriously...” - Exodus 15:1–2, 20–21.

Victory was sealed not only by deliverance - but by declaration.

Made Triumphant in Christ

Through redemption, we are not merely surviving - we are made triumphant.

Scripture affirms that we are:

- More than conquerors (Romans 8:37)
- Overcomers (1 John 5:4–5; Revelation 12:11)
- Victorious through Christ (1 Corinthians 15:57)

Christ publicly disarmed every opposing power and triumphed over them through the cross.

“...Having disarmed rulers and authorities, He made a public spectacle of them, triumphing over them through the cross.” - Colossians 2:15 (AMP).

And today:

“Thanks be to God, who always leads us in triumph in Christ...” - 2 Corinthians 2:14.

Triumphant living is not an aspiration - it is a redemptive reality.

Calling Those Things That Be Not as Though They Were

Year 2026: A Pregnant Year of Possibility

The year 2026 arrives pregnant with divine potential. Scripture reminds us that heaven responds to what we permit and declare in alignment with God's will.

"...Whatever you bind on earth shall have been bound in heaven..." - Matthew 16:19 (AMP).

Though God alone knows the end from the beginning, He has made His purposes accessible through the Holy Spirit.

"...God hath revealed them unto us by His Spirit..." - 1 Corinthians 2:9-10.

Hope is sustained because the love of God is lavishly poured into our hearts by the Holy Spirit (Romans 5:5).

The Faith Principle: Calling It Before Seeing It

To live and thrive in 2026, Scripture calls us to operate by a timeless principle of faith: Calling those things that be not as though they were.

Faith-filled people throughout Scripture did not wait for evidence - they declared alignment.

God Himself spoke creation into being. Likewise, by the indwelling Spirit, believers are empowered to speak life into God-given goals, visions, and assignments.

"...With the heart man believes unto righteousness, and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation." - Romans 10:10.

"Death and life are in the power of the tongue..." - Proverbs 18:21

Jesus taught this principle plainly - believe, speak, and persist until manifestation occurs (Mark 11:22-24).

Abraham: The Pattern for Faith in Action

Abraham believed God and called into existence what did not yet exist. His unknown future became a tangible reality because he trusted God's Word.

"...God... calleth those things which be not as though they were." - Romans 4:17.

As heirs of Abraham by faith, we are invited to exercise the same grace-enabled confidence.

"...They which are of faith are blessed with faithful Abraham." - Galatians 3:9.

Faith speaks before it sees. Faith declares before it touches. Faith aligns with God until manifestation follows.

Closing Charge

As you journey through Year 2026, let your words reflect your redemption. Speak life over your goals. Declare God's purposes into every assignment. Align your confessions with God's verdict.

May this year yield fruitfulness, fulfilment, and visible triumph.

I pray God's enabling grace, wisdom, and speed rest upon you in all things, as you live triumphantly in Christ Jesus.

Amen.

YEAR 2026 - TRIUMPHANT LIVING PREPAREDNESS

Build Your Foundation on the Word, Not on a Mere Prophecy

"So we have the PROPHETIC WORD made MORE CERTAIN [ASSURED]. You do well to pay [close] attention to it as to a LAMP SHINING in a DARK PLACE, until the DAY DAWNS and light breaks through the GLOOM and the MORNING STAR ARISES in your hearts. 20 But understand this first of all, that NO PROPHECY OF SCRIPTURE is a matter of or comes from ONE'S OWN [PERSONAL OR SPECIAL] interpretation, 21 for NO PROPHECY was ever MADE by an act of human will, but men MOVED by the Holy Spirit SPOKE from God" 2 Peter 1:19-21/Amplified.

A Necessary Foundation for Triumphant Living

As we step into Year 2026, a year themed Triumphant Living, one truth must be firmly established:

Triumphant living requires preparedness - and true preparedness begins with the Word of God, not with unexamined prophecy.

Scripture affirms that the prophetic word is sure, reliable, and divinely inspired. Yet it also makes clear that prophecy must never be detached from Scriptural authority, spiritual discernment, and personal responsibility.

You Are Not Spiritually Helpless

One of the most liberating truths for the New Creation believer is this:

You are not without guidance. You are not without discernment. You are not without access to God's voice.

The believer in Christ carries the assured Word of prophecy and the indwelling Holy Spirit, enabling discernment, examination, and alignment with truth.

"For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God." - Romans 8:14

Being Spirit-led does not merely mean having the Holy Spirit - it means yielding to His leadership through the Word. This guards believers against emotional manipulation, exploitative prophecy, and faith distortion.

Prophecy Is Valid - But It Must Be Tested

Yes, prophecy and prophesying are biblical, spiritual, and necessary. Scripture never instructs believers to despise prophecy - but it equally commands that prophecy must be examined.

"Despise not prophesyings. Prove all things; hold fast that which is good." - 1 Thessalonians 5:20-21.

"Let the prophets speak... and let the others judge." - 1 Corinthians 14:29.

Genuine prophecy will always:

- Align with Scripture
- Exalt Christ, not personalities
- Produce edification, exhortation, and comfort
- Operate in order, peace, and clarity

"For the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy." - Revelation 19:10.

Any prophetic utterance that replaces the Word, bypasses discernment, promotes fear, or glorifies ego rather than Christ must be rejected - regardless of the messenger.

Build Your Foundation on the Word, Not on a Mere Prophecy

Why the New Testament Believer Has Greater Advantage

Unlike Old Testament believers, New Creation believers possess:

- The written Word of God
- The indwelling Holy Spirit
- A recreated spirit capable of discernment

In the Old Testament, prophecy often came externally through prophets because the people were not Spirit-indwelt. Today, the believer has both internal witness and external Scripture.

“The Spirit Himself bears witness with our spirit...” - Romans 8:16.

This places responsibility on the believer to search, test, and confirm every prophetic claim.

“...They received the word with all readiness of mind, and searched the Scriptures daily, whether those things were so.” - Acts 17:11.

The Danger of Prophecy Without the Word

When prophecy is pursued without Scripture:

- Faith becomes sentiment
- Hope turns into dependency
- Believers become vulnerable to exploitation

God does not operate in confusion, manipulation, or fear.

“If they speak not according to this word, it is because there is no light in them.” - Isaiah 8:20.

True prophecy produces peace, clarity, and spiritual stability - not bondage or anxiety.

Word-Based Preparedness for 2026

To live triumphantly in 2026, preparedness must be:

- Word-based
- Faith-governed
- Spirit-led

Prophecy should confirm what the Word has already established - not replace it.

“I commend you to God and to the word of His grace, which is able to build you up...”
- Acts 20:32 (AMP).

The Word builds, grounds, stabilizes, and equips believers to triumph - regardless of circumstances.

As you begin this year, choose preparation over excitement, substance over spectacle, and truth over noise.

Build your year on the Word.

Test every prophecy.

Follow the Spirit.

And live triumphantly rooted, grounded, and prepared.

Year 2026 will not be shaped by what is merely spoken over you - but by what you believe, examine, and live out in Christ.

Amen.

Paul the Apostle: Triumph in Christ, Not Circumstance

“Now thanks be to God who always leads us in triumph in Christ...” - 2 Corinthians 2:14.

FROM PERSECUTOR TO PROCLAIMER

Paul’s story is one of the most radical transformations recorded in Scripture. Once known as Saul of Tarsus - a zealous persecutor of the early Church - Paul believed he was serving God by opposing Christ. Armed with religious credentials, legal authority, and sincere conviction, he pursued believers with relentless intensity.

Yet, on the road to Damascus, everything changed.

A single encounter with the risen Christ dismantled Paul’s confidence in the flesh and replaced it with a revelation of grace. His blindness was not merely physical - it symbolized the collapse of a belief system rooted in effort, law, and self-righteousness. When his sight was restored, Paul did not just see again; he saw differently.

This moment marked the dawn of a new way of living - not by religious performance, but by divine empowerment.

TRIUMPH REDEFINED

Paul’s life after conversion was far from comfortable. He faced imprisonment, beatings, rejection, shipwrecks, betrayal, and hardship. By human standards, his journey might look like repeated defeat. Yet Paul never framed his life through the lens of circumstances. Instead, he boldly declared triumph.

Paul understood something many believers struggle with today:

Triumph is a position in Christ, not a reaction to outcomes. Even in chains, Paul wrote letters that shaped Christianity for generations. Even under pressure, he preached grace with clarity. Even while suffering, he overflowed with joy. His triumph was internal, anchored in identity, not environment.

GRACE: THE ENGINE OF PAUL'S VICTORY

Paul never attributed his effectiveness to personal strength or discipline alone.

Repeatedly, he pointed to grace as the source of his endurance and fruitfulness.

“But by the grace of God I am what I am, and His grace toward me was not in vain...”

- 1 Corinthians 15:10.

Grace did not make Paul passive - it made him powerful.

Grace did not excuse weakness - it transformed it into strength.

Grace did not remove responsibility - it enabled faithful stewardship.

This understanding allowed Paul to live boldly, teach fearlessly, and endure joyfully. His triumph was not loud or boastful; it was steady, assured, and deeply rooted in Christ.

LESSONS FOR TODAY'S BELIEVER

Paul's life speaks directly to the heart of triumphant living in grace:

- You do not need perfect circumstances to walk in victory.
- Your past does not disqualify you from future impact.
- Triumph is sustained by revelation, not repetition.
- Grace empowers obedience; it does not replace it.
- Identity in Christ is stronger than pressure from life.

Paul did not wait for life to become easy before calling himself triumphant. He understood that Christ in him was enough.

REFLECTION (ASK YOURSELF)

Am I defining victory by outcomes or by identity in Christ?

Where have I allowed circumstances to speak louder than grace?

What would change if I truly believed that I am already triumphant in Christ?

CLOSING THOUGHT

Paul's life reminds us that triumphant living does not begin when battles end - it begins when revelation dawns. When grace becomes your foundation, victory becomes your lifestyle.

Strength for the Journey: Caring for the Body That Carries the Vision

“Beloved, I pray that you may prosper in all things and be in health, just as your soul prospers.” - 3 John 1:2.

Health Is Not Separate from Spirituality

In God’s design, health is not an afterthought - it is a stewardship. The body is the vessel through which purpose is expressed, service is rendered, and destiny is fulfilled.

Preparedness without physical and emotional well-being leads to burnout.

Triumph without health sustainability leads to inconsistency.

God’s will is alignment - spirit, soul, and body working together.

Biblical Strength Is Sustainable Strength

Scripture consistently connects strength with endurance, not exhaustion.

Triumphant living does not mean:

- Ignoring rest in the name of faith
- Overworking while praying for strength
- Neglecting the body while feeding the spirit

Instead, it looks like:

- Knowing when to pause
- Honouring rhythms of rest
- Listening to the signals your body gives

Even Jesus withdrew to rest (Luke 5:16).

Modern Health Pressures Believers Face

In today’s fast-paced world, many believers silently struggle with:

- Chronic fatigue
- Stress-induced illnesses
- Poor sleep patterns
- Emotional overload
- Inconsistent self-care

These are not signs of spiritual weakness - they are often signs of imbalanced living.

Faith-Filled Health Practices

Healthy living does not require extremes - just consistency.

Daily Practices That Support Strength:

- Adequate rest and sleep
- Balanced nutrition
- Hydration
- Movement (walking, stretching, light exercise)
- Quiet moments for mental and emotional reset

These habits don’t replace faith - they support it.

Rest Is a Spiritual Discipline

Rest is not laziness. It is obedience.

When you rest:

- You acknowledge God as your sustainer
- You resist performance-driven living
- You preserve strength for longevity

Triumphant believers understand that rest protects purpose.

Your body should not be an obstacle to your calling but rather an instrument of it.

Care for it with wisdom, grace, and intentionality.

COMPANION REFLECTION WORKSHEET

Living From Triumph, Not For It

“Now thanks be to God who always leads us in triumph in Christ...” - 2 Corinthians 2:14

REVELATION CHECK

Instruction:

Pause. Read the scripture above slowly. Let it settle before you respond.

REFLECTION:

1. When I hear the word triumph, what do I usually associate it with?

- Success
- Ease
- Achievement
- Approval
- My relationship with Christ
- Other: _____

2. In what areas of my life have I been striving for victory instead of standing in Christ’s victory?

Write your thoughts:

IDENTITY ALIGNMENT

Truth Reminder:

Triumph is not a reward for effort; it is a result of position in Christ.

Personal Audit:

• I often measure my spiritual life by:

- How much I do
- How consistent I am
- How successful things look
- Who I am in Christ

• One way I have allowed circumstances to define my confidence:

• One truth about my identity in Christ I need to embrace more fully:

PAUL'S PERSPECTIVE

Reflection: Paul experienced hardship, rejection, and pressure - yet declared triumph.

Answer honestly:

1. What “chains” (pressure, delay, fear, uncertainty) am I currently facing?

2. How have I been interpreting these challenges—through fear or through faith?

3. If I truly believed Christ is leading me in triumph, how would my response change?

Scripture Focus:

“By the grace of God I am what I am...” - 1 Corinthians 15:10

Complete the Statements:

- Grace empowers me to:

- Grace frees me from:

- One area where I will rely more on grace than self-effort this season:

PERSONAL DECLARATION

Instruction:

Read aloud or silently. Return to this declaration often.

I LIVE FROM CHRIST'S VICTORY, NOT TOWARD IT.

I AM ANCHORED IN GRACE, NOT DRIVEN BY FEAR.

I DEFINE MY LIFE BY IDENTITY IN CHRIST, NOT CIRCUMSTANCE.

IN CHRIST, I AM ALWAYS LED IN TRIUMPH.

THIS IS MY REALITY. THIS IS MY WALK.

I affirm today, with full assurance of faith, that I am redeemed by the blood of Jesus Christ, seated with Him in heavenly places, and established in victory, authority, and dominion.

I do not speak from defeat. I do not think from fear. I do not live from lack.

I speak, think, and live from my position of triumph in Christ Jesus.

I believe God. Therefore, I speak.

I call those things that be not as though they were, because the Spirit of the Living God dwells within me and gives life to my words.

I am more than a conqueror. I am an overcomer by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of my testimony.

I walk in wisdom. I live in grace. I advance in peace.

I am not anxious for my future, for the peace of God guards my heart and my mind.

I possess a sound mind, emotional balance, and inner strength by the Holy Spirit.

This year, I sing a new song. Not a song of defeat, but a song of victory.

Not a song of fear, but a song of faith.

I declare that Year 2026 is fruitful for me. My plans prosper. My purpose unfolds. My pursuit is divinely ordered.

I am led in triumph always. My life is a testimony of grace in action and faith made visible.

I live redeemed. I live victorious. I live triumphant.

Amen.
